Fundraising Campaigns for AER and AFAP Charities

Soldiers and Airmen are being urged to contribute to service-specific campaigns that help the military branches "take care of their own."

In conjunction with campaigns in military communities throughout the world, fundraising efforts for Army Emergency Relief and the Air Force Assistance Fund kicked off in Stuttgart earlier this month.

AER is designed to provide financial assistance (interest-free loans or grants) to Soldiers on extended active duty and their dependents; Army National Guard and Army Reserve Soldiers on continuous active duty for more than 30 days and their dependents; Soldiers retired from active duty because of longevity or physical disability, or retired upon reaching age 60 (Reserve Components) and their dependents; and surviving spouses and orphans of Soldiers who died while on active duty or after they retired.

For more about AER, call Master Sgt. Vivienne Britton at 421-2348/civ. 0711-4328, e-mail brittonb@6asg.army.mil, or visit www.aerhq.org. Deadline for contributions is April 29.
